Draping can be really fun and allows you to design outfits that are unique and ultimately drape beautifully.

First you will need a dress form that is adjusted to your size.

Mark the dress form for the center of the body, waistline, shoulder, and hipline.

Begin draping your fabric and hand sew in place. Or you can pin in place and use basting stitched to mark the new seamlines. This way you can take apart the dress and use as a muslin or trace to create a new pattern.
